CRAZY SNAKE SURRENDERS

Leader of Outlaw Band of Indians Gives Up.

OLD CHIEF BADLY WOUNDED

Suffering From a Gunshot Wound in the Hip Sustained in a Previous Encounter With a Posse—Will Be Taken to the Federal Prison at Muskogee—Uprising of Seminole Freedmen Appears Imminent.

Guthrie, Okla., March 31.—Crazy Snake has been captured. He is being held under heavy guard at Thompson's farm west of Checotah. This was confirmed by a telephone message from Muskogee. He will be taken to jail in Muskogee.

Fort Worth, Tex., March 31.—A dispatch to the Record from Muskogee, Okla., says:

P. E. Heckman, who has arrived here from Checotah, declares that Crazy Snake, the leader of the band of Indians and negro outlaws, has been taken into custody and that he is being held at Thompson, a few miles from Checotah. The news of his capture, Heckman declares, was brought to Checotah by a courier guide.

According to the statement of Mr. Heckman, the old Indian surrendered without a fight, although he is badly wounded, suffering from a gunshot wound in the hip sustained in an encounter with a posse previously. Mr. Heckman declares that an official statement as to his capture is being withheld because of the intense feeling prevalent. The Indian, he declares, will be taken to the federal prison at Muskogee.

PEOPLE BADLY FRIGHTENED

Fear Uprising of Seminole Indians in Oklahoma.

Oklahoma City, Okla., March 31.—Great excitement prevails among the Seminole freedmen in the vicinity of Holdenville because of the arrest of one of their number, Frank Coker, charged with killing Marshal Baum and Deputy Odom in the fight at Crazy Snake's house Saturday.

The people in that district are badly frightened over reports that the Seminoles are arming to join Crazy Snake's band. Negro agitators worked among the Indians throughout the evening in an effort to incite them to an uprising.

One story wired here declared the Seminoles had risen and were on the march in armed bodies. This could not be confirmed.

It is charged that efforts are being made to belittle the trouble on account of the supposed unpleasant notoriety to the state. For this reason it is hard to get at the real facts regarding the number of dead and injured since fighting began last Thursday. A dispatch from Henryetta said military officers had reported unofficially that thirty negroes and Indians had been killed since Thursday. All efforts to establish the truth or falsity of the report were vain.

Deputy Sheriffs Frank Jones and William Clark told a staff correspondent of the Daily Oklahoman who reached Pierce in advance of the militia that they had good reason to believe that more than Marshal Baum and Deputy Sheriff Odom were killed in Saturday's fight.

While digging in the ashes and debris of the razed home of Crazy Snake the correspondent discovered the charred bones of probably as many as four men. Jones and Clark investigated and announced themselves as satisfied that several Indians were burned. They say the Indians were killed in the fight and their bodies were cremated by their companions.

The section of the Seminole Nation where trouble is reported is peopled largely by negroes and until recently was the favorite rendezvous of the Casey, Swofford and Craven bands which were exterminated in a fight at Weewaka Mills five years ago.

McFarland-Deshler Fight a Draw.

Boston, March 31.—Dave Deshler of Cambridge fought Packey McFarland of Chicago twelve rounds to a draw at the Armory Athletic association and on announcement of the decision McFarland assaulted Referee Jack Sheehan and knocked him down. A mixup followed in which the seconds and rubbers of both fighters exchanged blows. McFarland apologized for striking the referee, but he declared he thought the decision unfair.

WAR SEEMS TO BE INEVITABLE

Conflict in Central America to Soon Begin.

ON THE HONDURAN FRONTIER

President Cabrera of Guatemala Has Concentrated a Large Portion of His Army—Guatemala and Salvador Will Fight Honduras and Nicaragua for Domination of Central America. Mexico Sends Troops South.

Mexico City, March 31.—Private telegraphic advices received here are to the effect that Guatemala has concentrated a large portion of her army on the Honduran frontier. The Honduran minister to Guatemala demanded an explanation and was told that President Cabrera desired to check the exiled Honduran revolutionists from crossing the border and fomenting an uprising against General Davila, president of Honduras. This concentration of troops has not been confirmed from other quarters.

The situation in Central America is regarded in Mexico City with pessimism despite various denials of hostile intention. This latest reported move on the part of Cabrera is thought to have been taken to checkmate President Zelaya of Nicaragua and President Davila, who are said to contemplate a joint assault on Guatemala.

Rumors of an impending general war in Central America are again current in this capital and despite denials from the five republics it is believed in well informed circles that the clash cannot be averted.

War within ten days is the prediction of well informed in the emigrado colony here. Guatemala and Salvador will be aligned against Nicaragua and Honduras, according to these versions. Domination of Central America is to be the issue. In this connection the ordering of 400 troops southwest by the war department is creating much interest.

DRIVEN OUT OF THE TOWN

Hungarian Miners Forced to Leave Jasonville, Ind.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 31.—Hungarian miners employed at the Bogle colliery at Jasonville, near this city, who engaged in a battle with American miners in which eleven persons were wounded, accepted the inevitable and have scattered to different parts of the country. Many have gone to Adena, O.

Harry St. John, an American, was shot in the stomach and may die. Tressie Naggi, a Hungarian woman, was shot in the foot.

The Hungarians and the Americans had been at odds for a long time. Each faction fired into the houses of the other and street fights were common. A committee of the American miners went to a boarding house occupied by the Hungarians and warned the foreigners to leave the district. The committee was met by a volley from shotguns. The Americans then sought shelter and opened fire on the Hungarians. All night there was occasional shooting.

The armed Americans later ordered the Hungarians to leave at once, and they piled their goods on wagons and drove away in all directions. An American flag is now flying over the mining camp's school house.

KILLED BY THEIR SON-IN-LAW

South Dakota Ranchman and His Wife Murdered.

Alliance, Neb., March 31.—News has reached here from Provo, S. D., just over the Nebraska line, of the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Tucker, ranchers, near that place, by their son-in-law, Richard Barton, who killed them with an axe, after which, the dispatch says, he mutilated the bodies. Barton threatened his wife and cautioned her not to reveal his crime until he had an opportunity to escape, but after he left she informed neighbors and the pursuit begun, resulting in Barton's capture at Edgemont, S. D. Domestic trouble is supposed to have prompted the double crime.

Found Dead in Pool of Blood.

St. Paul, March 31.—Antonio Campanaro, an Italian, twenty-one years of age, was found dead, lying on his face and hands, with his head in a gathering pool of blood, in a room in the house of his uncle, Patricio Campanaro. Dr. Eugene Murphy, deputy coroner, who investigated the case, is uncertain whether the young man met his death as the result of an accident or suicide.

WOULD COMBINE ALL THE RAILROADS

Harriman Thinks It Would Benefit All Concerned.

Denver, March 31.—If E. H. Harriman could have his way he would bring all the railroads of America into one gigantic combination and begin immediately spending $250,000,000 or $300,000,000 improving weaker roads, both physically and financially. In this way, he says, he believes he could do the greatest good for the government, the people generally, to the shippers individually and finally to owners of railroad stocks.

Mr. Harriman, who passed two hours in Denver on his way East, said in an informal talk at the chamber of commerce:

"If we could, we would throw our cloak over the weaker lines throughout the country and begin immediately the expenditure of between $250,000,000 and $300,000,000 to improve them."

"It ought to be done immediately, and I think I can qualify as an expert on these matters. It should be done openly and under some sort of government supervision. But we would all be put in prison if we tried it."

Mr. Harriman declared that his roads have spent about $350,000,000 since 1902 building and rebuilding in the West and through the mountains. He repeated his assertion that he had found a great change in public sentiment toward railroads and railroad building throughout the land.

"Five years ago," he said, "I told President Roosevelt that he was wrong and that he would have many imitators in various states and cities who would do the country incalculable harm, and what I told him then has proved correct. Roosevelt was wrong in his fight on me and the railroads, and the truth of this is getting clearer every day."

ATTACKED BY AN ANARCHIST

Des Moines Priest Cowed His Assailant With a Revolver.

Des Moines, Ia., March 31.—Following closely upon the attempted attack upon three priests at St. Ambrose Catholic church here during Lenten services, Father Romanelli pastor of St. Anthony's church, notified the police he had been attacked in his study by an anarchist.

Father Romanelli declares the man when talking to him suddenly sprang upon him. Father Romanelli quickly pulled a revolver from a desk and backed his assailant to the door.

Police declare there is a conspiracy to harm local priests and close watch is being kept on suspects.

Andrew Ballentyne has been identified as the man who created a disturbance in the St. Ambrose church. Ballentyne is held to be demented.

MISSIONARY CONGRESS OPENS

Many Americans Attending Lay Meeting in Toronto.

Toronto, March 31.—Many Americans prominent in church work and interested in the missionary movement from the lay side are in this city attending the Canadian national missionary congress which began today.

Among the Americans taking part in the congress, which is interdenominational, are Silas McBee, editor of the Churchman; D. F. Wilber, United States consul general at Halifax; L. H. Severance of Cleveland, Robert E. Speer, J. Lovell Murray and J. Campbell White. The principal address at the congress will be made by Sir Andrew Fraser, formerly lieutenant governor of Bengal, India. Earl Grey, governor general of Canada, is the honorary president of the congress.

Among the musical features of the congress will be the singing of the National Young Men's Christian association quartette, representing four different sections of the United States.

MOTOR BOAT SHOW BEGINS

Exposition to Be Followed by Races, With Two American Entries.

Nice, France, March 31.—The international motor boat exposition, in which motor enthusiasts of many countries are interested, was opened at Monaco today. The exposition precedes the motor boat races, which will be sailed at Monaco from April 4 to 11. All the entries in the races are shown in the exposition, the conditions of the races requiring them to be placed on exhibition. The two American entries, the Dixie II, international champion of last year, owned by Edward J. Schroeder of New York, and the Standard, owned by Price McKinney of Cleveland, O., are attracting much attention.

WARM DEBATE IN THE HOUSE

Tariff Measure the Subject of Heated Discussion.

Washington, March 31.—When the session of the house got well under way the tariff debate waxed warm. The indications were when the body met that the proceedings would be dry and uninteresting, but a revival of the discussion of the oil and lumber schedules was like setting a match to both products, for the subjects proved of absorbing interest to the members, who entered generally into the debate. To Mr. Vreeland of New York was accorded the privilege of explaining the position of the independent refiners, who want the countervailing duty on crude petroleum retained, while Mr. Kitchen of North Carolina in an exhaustive treatment of the question pleaded for placing lumber on the free list. He got into frequent colloquies in his three and a half hours' talk with both Republicans and Democrats.

Others who spoke were Messrs. Cox of Ohio, Sterling of Illinois, Hughes of Georgia, Bates of Pennsylvania, Parker of New Jersey and Richardson of Alabama.

FORMULA AGREED UPON BY POWERS

Presented to and Accepted by Servian Government.

Belgrade, March 31.—The formula agreed upon by the powers of Europe and Austria-Hungary for the settlement of the dispute between the dual monarchy and Servia has been accepted by the Servian government. The formula was presented at the foreign office by the British, French, German, Russian and Italian ministers, and Servia will through her minister at Vienna deliver to the Austrian government a note to the following effect:

"First, Servia declares that her rights have not been violated by the annexation by Austria-Hungary of Bosnia and Herzegovina and accepts the powers' decision to annul paragraph 25 of the treaty of Berlin; second, Servia will not protest against the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina; third, Servia will maintain peaceful relations with Austria-Hungary; fourth, Servia will return her military forces to normal conditions by discharging the reservists and volunteers and she will not permit the formation of irregular troops or bands."

This note has been prepared at the suggestion of the powers and will be sent with the object of terminating all misunderstandings between Austria-Hungary and Servia.

OLDEST CITY CELEBRATES

St. Augustine Begins Three Days' Fete in Honor of Its Founding.

St. Augustine, Fla., March 31.—This ancient city, the first place in the United States inhabited by whites, began today a three days' celebration of the anniversary of its founding. The jubilee is intended to commemorate the landing of Ponce de Leon, the famous seeker for the fabulous fountain of youth, in 1513, the founding of the city in 1565 and the various changes of flags which St. Augustine has seen.

Today will be devoted to the ceremonies connected with the landing of Ponce de Leon, who will arrive on a caravel, accompanied by Spanish grandees, knights, soldiers, priests, etc. The party will land at the entrance to the old fort and will there be greeted by Indians to the number of several hundred.

The second day's ceremonies will be devoted to the founding of the city of St. Augustine by Menéndez.

On the third day the ceremonies will be devoted to depicting the various changes of flags that have taken place during the history of St. Augustine. The flags of Spain, France and England will in turn float over the city. These will all give way at last to the star spangled banner.

The United States government will be represented by two companies of coast artillery and a military band, Florida by a battalion of state troops and the regimental band and the Kentucky Military Institute by cadets and a band.

GERMAN SOCIETY STIRRED

Rumored That Madame von Bohlen Will Seek Divorce.

Berlin, March 31.—German society is greatly stirred by rumors of domestic dissension and the possibility of divorce proceedings between Madame and Dr. von Bohlen. Reports from Essen say that since the death of their infant son about two months ago the couple have led a very unhappy life and that a separation has practically been decided upon.

Madame Bohlen and Halbach was Bertha Krupp, daughter and chief heir of the late noted iron master.

WORKERS FOR STEPHENSON

Their Activities Again Covered at Committee Hearing.

Madison, Wis., March 31.—The senatorial primary investigation again reverted to the activities of Stephenson workers. This occurred during the testimony of two witnesses and to the apparent amusement of the senate members of the committee, the testimony concerning Stephenson's campaign was brought out upon questions by the assembly members.

C. E. Broughton of Fond du Lac, who received $846.54 from the Hatton fund, told of the unexpected change in sentiment from Hatton to Stephenson in North Fond du Lac after it had been reported to him that R. L. Morse, an attorney of Fond du Lac, had appeared in a saloon and flourished a "roll as big as a loaf of bread," which he is alleged to have said was for "votes for Stephenson."

James A. Stone of Reedsburg said that after he had told J. H. Puellcher two years ago of his preference for Lenroot, that Puellcher had offered him per diem and expenses if he would work for Stephenson.

Other witnesses were Frank W. Taylor of Green Bay, T. P. Nelson of Madison and George E. Mattoon of Milwaukee, all of whom worked for Hatton, and Edward L. Tracy, state oil inspector, who furthered Cook's candidacy.

SLASHED HIS WIFE'S THROAT

Because She Did Not Love Him as Well as His First Wife Did.

Henderson, Ga., March 31.—Because his young wife does not love him as devotedly as his former wife who died a year ago, was the reason assigned by Taylor Rittenberry for slashing his wife's throat from ear to ear and then attempting suicide in a like manner when cornered by a police officer. Both probably will die.

In the presence of a number of people on the East Macon road Rittenberry came up behind his wife and began hacking at her throat with an ugly knife.

Rittenberry is one of the best known men in East Macon.

McGovern Defeats Coster.

New York, March 31.—Phil McGovern of Brooklyn defeated Joe Coster in a ten-round bout at the Bedford Athletic club. It was McGovern's fight all the way. Coster received a severe beating and was knocked down several times in the course of the bout.

The Socialists are enjoying great delight in the thought that the Republicans who desire Mayor Crust's re-election will refuse to go to the polls on next Tuesday, thereby assuring Mr. Clark's defeat. The Republican voters of Brainerd are to loyal to their city, have too much interest in its future welfare to turn the city over to the Socialists by staying away from the polls. The Republicans of Brainerd believe between a Socialist with no experience in business affairs and a citizen of 25 years of experience, there can be no hesitation; they will therefore vote and work for D. M. Clark for Mayor, and then vote the balance of the ticket straight. 253tf

LOFTY DANCING FLOOR.

Feature of the Opening of Queensboro Bridge at New York.

A plan for turning the upper section of the new Queensboro bridge at New York into an immense dancing pavilion during the week of celebrating the public opening of that structure was recently announced by the committee having the celebration in charge.

It is proposed to lay a dancing floor over the top of the main thoroughfare. The floor is to be as wide as the structure and is to run along the span a distance of 1,182 feet. A canvas shelter will be provided, and six bands will make music for the dancers. Three bands will be stationed in the tower on the Manhattan side of Blackwell's island and three bands in the tower on the Queens side. The bridge will be illuminated from end to end.

The dancing program for the carnival will open with a fancy dress ball June 12 and close with a roller skating carnival June 19. Prizes are to be offered for the handsomest woman, the best dancer and other features.

I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." H. P. Dunn's mwf drug store.

Astounding Vitality of the Turtle.

The vitality of this strange sea creature, the turtle, after decapitation is almost beyond belief. A large turtle was once sent to a hotel in Newcastle. The chef cut the turtle's head off and hung the body upside down to bleed. Twenty-four hours after that turtle knocked down a man cook with one blow of its fin. The green turtle is not a vicious creature to handle, like its snapping Japanese brother, but its fins are very strong, and one blow from them is quite sufficient to break a man's arm.—Wide World Magazine.

A Town That Moves Twice Every Year.

Gartok is a trade town in Tibet. During three months of the year it is situated at the place where it is designated on the map. During the other nine months it is not there at all, but is about forty miles farther south at a much lower altitude. Climatic conditions are the cause of this migratory habit. When the heat grows too intense for comfort the whole town packs up and, driving the herds of yaks, sheep and goats, moves up to the higher altitude, and the traders from India at once begin to drift in. Trade continues for three months; then, before the severe Tibetan winter begins, the town moves back again to the warmer climate of the lower altitude and its period of hibernation sets in.

CLUBWOMEN IN CONVENTION

Council of General Federation Begins Sessions in San Antonio, Tex.

San Antonio, Tex., March 31.—Leaders of the clubwomen of the United States, assembled from every section of the country to attend the council meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, began in this city today a two days' convention.

The council consists of the board of directors of the general federation, presidents of state federations of clubs and of kindred organizations and of state secretaries of the general federation.

The topics for discussion include the programme of the tenth biennial of the general federation to be held in May, 1910, in Cincinnati, O., and reports and recommendations of all committees.

WEALTHY MAN A SUICIDE

Washington Real Estate Broker Ends His Life.

Washington, March 31.—Henry A. Griswold, formerly president of the Anacosta and Potomac Railroad company, now a part of the Washington Electric Railway and Power company, killed himself with a shotgun here. He was a wealthy real estate broker and belonged to a prominent family at Weatherfield, Conn.

Griswold's body was discovered in an attic room of the family home with a load of buckshot in his heart. Beside him on the floor lay a double-barrelled shotgun and a fire poker.

Griswold, it appeared, had planned his death with great deliberation. While his wife was on a shopping trip he went to the attic room and, placing the gun against a box, pointed the barrel against his breast, using the poker to push the trigger. Griswold was sixty-three years old and came to Washington in his youth.

WEALTHY MAN A SUICIDE
Washington Real Estate Broker Ends His Life.

Washington, March 31.—Henry A. Griswold, formerly president of the Anacosta and Potomac Railroad company, now a part of the Washington Electric Railway and Power company, killed himself with a shotgun here. He was a wealthy real estate broker and belonged to a prominent family at Weatherfield, Conn.

Griswold's body was discovered in an attic room of the family home with a load of buckshot in his heart. Beside him on the floor lay a double-barrelled shotgun and a fire poker.

Griswold, it appeared, had planned his death with great deliberation. While his wife was on a shopping trip he went to the attic room and, placing the gun against a box, pointed the barrel against his breast, using the poker to push the trigger. Griswold was sixty-three years old and came to Washington in his youth.

ELMER CHURCH
KILLED LAST NIGHT

Pine River Man Met Death on Railway Track West of this City Tuesday Night

EXACT CAUSE IS UNCERTAIN

Probably was Struck by Special Train While Walkig Beside Track that Evening

Considerable mystery surrounds the death of Elmer Church, of Pine River, whose remains were found beside the Northern Pacific track about three miles west of Brainerd this morning by Peter Parsons, section foreman, and his crew. It is supposed, however, that the deceased came to his death either by a fall from a moving train or from being struck by a train while walking along the track. Church, who was on his way to Montana, came down from his home at Pine River yesterday and apparently started to go to Sylvan, the first station west of Brainerd. That he was going to Sylvan is evidenced by letters, unstamped, which he was carrying from his daughter, Miss Lottie Church, to friends in Sylvan, and which he would have mailed had he not been going to stop there. His watch was found about 20 feet west of the body, badly defaced and evidently stopped at about 7:20 or 7:30 o'clock. A revolver which he always carried, was found about fifteen feet or 20 feet east of where the body was found. His neck was broken and his left side caved in and his left hand cut. It is not known here at what time he started from Brainerd, or whether or not he started afoot, but no tickets to Sylvan were sold last night and he had no ticket on his person as would have been apt to have been the case had he purchased one for some point west of Staples.

A theory which finds credence among railroad men is that he started out about supper time for Sylvan and met the special train which brought "The Wolf" company to this city, and which made the trip from Staples, 30 miles, in 31 minutes. Church was probably slow in getting out of the way and the engine or some part of the train struck him, caving in his side and breaking his neck.

Coroner Thomas Gibson, who was notified, went out and picked up the remains and brought them to D. M. Clark's undertaking rooms where they are now awaiting orders for their disposition.

Another theory of the manner of Mr. Church's death is that he tried to ride on No. 53, the freight which left here at 5:45 this morning, and accidentally fell from the train. Officer Winters, however, states that Church asked him, yesterday afternoon if there was anyone in from Sylvan and finding that the officer knew of no one he said that he guessed that he would walk out.

Church was a rather eccentric individual. He formerly lived, it is said, about seven miles southwest of Brainerd, and went from here to Pine River about four years ago. He has had an idea for several years that someone was after him and always carried a heavy revolver. He purchased a box of revolver cartridges in D. M. Clark & Co.'s store yesterday afternoon, but the box had not been opened and the revolver was loaded with long rifle cartridges. There is no belief here, however, that there was foul play.

He also told Freeman Young that he was going to walk out and visit a friend over night.

"The Wolf" a Strong Play

The production of "The Wolf" by Andrew Robson and his excellent support at the opera house last evening was as strong a piece of acting as has been seen in Brainerd in some time. In the role of Jules Beaubein, a young Canadian, Mr. Robson proved himself an actor of high merit and sustained the difficult part perfectly throughout. Alfred Swenson portrayed the part of Wm. McDonald, the calculating villain and man of the world in a manner which won for the character the thorough hatred of the audience. The part of George Hintley, McDonald's assistant, gave the only flashes of comedy which lighted the somber earnestness of the play. His wholesome humor and whimsical nonsense were doubly welcome because of the contrast with the other characters. Ben Lamar, as Andrew McTavish, the half mad Scotch settler, portrayed the character with a vividness that made the audience shudder at times. The part of B'Atiste, the nomad trader, was well taken by Conrad Cantzen. The very difficult role of Hilda McTavish, the forest raised child of Andrew, and the victim of his half crazed hatred for her mother, was well rendered by Lorle Palmer, who proved herself an emotional actress of no mean merit.

As there is often some one in your family who suffers an attack of indigestion or some form of stomach trouble, why don't you keep a case of Diapepsin in the house handy?

This harmless blessing will digest anything you can eat without the slightest discomfort, and regulate a sour stomach five minutes after.

Tell your pharmacist to let you read the formula plainly printed on these 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will readily see why they cure indigestion, sour stomach, heartburn and prevent at once such miseries as belching of gas, eructations of sour undigested food, nausea, headaches, dizziness, constipation and other sour disorders.

Some folks have tried so long to find relief from indigestion with the common every-day cures advertised that they have something else wrong, or believe theirs is a case of nervousness, gastritis, catarrh of the stomach or cancer.

This is a serious mistake. Your real trouble is, what you eat does not digest; instead, it ferments and sours, turns to acid, gas and stomach poison, which will putrefy in the entire digestive tract and intestines, and, besides, poison the breath with nauseous odors.

A hearty appetite, with thorough digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to try Pape's Diapepsin.

One candy-like triangle, taken after eating, will promptly digest all your food, the same as a strong, healthy stomach would do it.

Assistant Attorney General
Gives Opinion That New Appointments Must be Made

The city council in adjourned session on Friday evening passed a resolution directing the city attorney and the special city attorney to immediately take steps to commence condemnation proceedings looking towards acquiring the water works plant of the Minnesota Water works company, which supplies the city with water. The proceedings started some months ago, as stated some time ago in the Dispatch, were dropped because the attorneys for the bond holders urged the unconstitutionality of the law under which the action was brought. A bill avoiding the defects of the former law was drawn and presented to the legislature and passed a few weeks ago, and it is under this new act that the proceedings will be commenced.

The resolution was passed by a vote of eight to two, Alderman Fogelstrom and President Toohey voting no.

There was a full attendance at the meeting of the council, Alderman Heath appearing, and having taken the oath of office, took his seat.

Saloon licenses were granted to A. J. Armstrong and John Wise and the transfer of the license of George Rappel to Ray Warren was approved.

E. H. Huseman was given permission to use a portion of Kindred street for building material for the erection of a building being put up by the Duluth Brewing company in East Brainerd.

A letter from the assistant attorney general was read stating that the officers appointed last fall would vacate their offices immediately after the appointment of their successors, which should be appointed by the mayor and council elected this spring.

Grammar and the Lord's Prayer.

A party of gentlemen were discussing literary subjects when one asked another to point out the grammatical blunder in the Lord's Prayer. Half a dozen tried. Some thought it lay in the words "which art in heaven;" others placed it elsewhere, but not one detected it in the expression, "For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory." To be perfectly correct the word "is" should be "are," but people have used it in the present form so long that they never think of regarding it as a blunder. There are teachers who say such an expression is right because it sounds right, but reverse it and say, "The kingdom, the power and the glory is thine," and the fault is soon perceived.

House Like Steamship Bridge.

An extraordinary looking dwelling is to be seen at Algorta, near Bilbao, in the north of Spain, and is called "Casa Barco," or "house boat," being built to resemble a steamship's bridge. It was probably erected by a retired sea captain who felt like a fish out of water until he had provided for himself the same environment to which he had been used during his active career at sea. One can imagine the old gentleman taking his evening walk to and fro along the lofty bridge, scanning the surrounding country with a sailor's eye and half inclined now and then to ring for "more speed" or to send an order down the tube to the steersman. —Wide World Magazine.

WOMEN'S WOES

Brainerd Women are Finding Relief at Last

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that affect humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. J. H. Zellers, living at 915 Main St., Brainerd, Minn., says: "I just as enthusiastically recommend Doan's Kidney Pills now, as I did several years ago. Prior to that time I suffered a great deal from dull, heavy pains across the small of my back and over the kidney region. There was also a miserable, bearing-down sensation through my loins and I could not stoop without suffering intensely. The secretions from my kidneys plainly showed a derangement of these organs and I was in very poor health. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills I procured a box from H. P. Dunn's drug store, and the results of their use were very satisfactory. I was helped from the first and a continued use resulted in a complete cure. I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills at the present time even more highly than I did in a previous statement as no symptom of kidney trouble has since reappeared."

WOMEN'S WOES

Brainerd Women are Finding Relief
at Last

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that affect humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. J. H. Zellers, living at 915 Main St., Brainerd, Minn., says: "I just as enthusiastically recommend Doan's Kidney Pills now, as I did several years ago. Prior to that time I suffered a great deal from dull, heavy pains across the small of my back and over the kidney region. There was also a miserable, bearing-down sensation through my loins and I could not stoop without suffering intensely. The secretions from my kidneys plainly showed a derangement of these organs and I was in very poor health. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills I procured a box from H. P. Dunn's drug store, and the results of their use were very satisfactory. I was helped from the first and a continued use resulted in a complete cure. I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills at the present time even more highly than I did in a previous statement as no symptom of kidney trouble has since reappeared."

MRS. BOYLE WAIVES HEARING

Will Remain in Jail Until Case Is Called for Trial.

Sharon, Pa., March 31.—Mrs. James H. Boyle, the woman of mystery and many aliases, will not be brought to Sharon for a preliminary hearing on the charge of kidnapping Willie Whittla. She signed the legal paper in Mercer jail waiving examination. The paper was presented by Attorney T. C. Cochran, attorney for J. P. Whittla.

No one has been able to learn the identity of the man who visited Mrs. Boyle in jail Monday. He claimed to be Mrs. Boyle's brother, and they embraced and kissed each other affectionately. He left the jail and has not been seen since.

Mrs. Boyle will be prosecuted with the same determination as her husband, James "Lefty" Boyle. If she is not convicted in Mercer county, she will be turned over to the Cleveland authorities, where she is indicted for blackmail.

ELIOT MAY GO TO ENGLAND

Offered Appointment of Ambassador to Great Britain.

TAFT MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT

Says College President Has Been Offered the Opportunity to Represent the United States at the Court of St. James—Senator Root Praises Eliot in a Speech at a Dinner in Washington.

Washington, March 31.—President Taft, speaking at a dinner tendered to retiring President Charles W. Eliot of Harvard university in this city, announced by direct inference that Dr. Eliot had been tendered and was considering the appointment of ambassador to Great Britain. Senator Root of New York had indicated the selection of Dr. Eliot earlier in the evening and President Taft made the announcement stronger by declaring he endorsed all that Senator Root had said.

Senator Root in indicating the choice of Dr. Eliot as the new American ambassador to Great Britain, declared that "before whatever monarch he (Eliot) shall stand, we will know our great republic in all its good qualities is represented by a true American gentleman."

The dinner was given by the Harvard alumni of Washington. President Taft, on arriving at the banquet hall late in the evening was greeted with rousing choruses of "Here's to Good Old Yale, Drink 'er Down," and with nine reverberating Harvard "rahs." Dr. Eliot had earlier received an ovation, which was repeated when he made a stirring plea to the alumni to maintain in the years to come the prestige of their university throughout the length and breadth of the land. President Eliot declared that he was giving over the work of Harvard to younger hands and looked forward confidently to the ever new, the ever widening progress the administration of his successor would bring about.

GREAT WELCOME FOR ROOSEVELT.

Prominent Men to Greet Him on His African Trip.

ARAB RULER INTERESTED.

Youthful Sultan of Zanzibar Anxious to Meet Former President—Governor James Sadler Will Also Entertain the Hunting Party From America.

When I arrived in British East Africa last spring I heard a great deal on every side about the visit of our former President, Theodore Roosevelt, to the hunting grounds of big game. Whether it was the Arab Sultan of Zanzibar, the Lewali of Mombasa, the English rulers, the German officers or the French colonists, everybody wanted to show their deep appreciation of Mr. Roosevelt.

A man who will wait with intense interest the guest's arrival will be the hereditary Arab ruler of all East Africa, young Ali bin Hamoud, the present Sultan of Zanzibar. I know the Sultan well. When the American Consul presented me to him in the palace in the summer of 1908 his first words were: "I am always glad to meet Americans. Your big country is the one I most desire to see. Your brilliant President is coming to East Africa, and he will have the warmest welcome ever given to a visitor in my domains. You see, we Arabs have the same sense of honor and high worth that you English-speaking people have. It would be the greatest pleasure in the world for me to receive Mr. Roosevelt and to visit America." So spoke the Sultan of Zanzibar, a young man educated at Eton, now twenty-two years of age, dressed like an English gentleman, and speaking the language of Shakespeare without an accent.

On the main land at Mombasa, the Arab ruler is called the Lewali. He is a descendant of a race of kings. He will be on the reception committee at Mombasa. For a long time his Arab ancestors fought the Arabs of Zanzibar, but at last Zanzibar was victorious, and the Lewali of Mombasa is now a finely educated young man, is a subject of the Sultan and under the Protectorate of England. Great Britain rents the shore land for ten miles inland from the Sultan of Zanzibar for $85,000 a year. The hinterland is hers by right of occupation, and a territory of 400,000 square miles, containing 5,000,000 blacks and 3,000 whites, makes up what is called the East African Protectorate. It is here and in Uganda, another territory at the head waters of the Nile, that the most of the hunting is to be done. The two side trips of most importance are the one projected into the Congo in search of white rhinoceri, and the one toward Lake Rudolf on the Abyssinian border. There is also a fine trip to the Kilimanjaro and German East Africa in contemplation.

Now, one of the men who will be prominent in the entertainment of the Roosevelt party is Gov. Sir James Sadler of the East African Protectorate, who has a fine bungalow at Mombasa and one at Nairobi, 337 miles in the interior, at an elevation of 5,500 feet. Sir James is a man of open heart and kindly disposition. He has been undeviatingly in favor of giving the blacks their own land and all their rights. Some of the colonists think that Gov. Sadler is kind to the natives and the Hindus at the expense of the white men. He expelled the Hon. Mr. Bailey and Lord Delamere from the legislative assembly at Nairobi last year because those gentlemen were actively working against the game preserves and the reserves of land for the Masai and other tribes.

Mr. Bailey and Lord Delamere are both rich men and very popular, and they will unquestionably be among the British colonists to welcome and greet the big man after big game. I understand that Gov. Sadler is going to have Mr. Roosevelt as his guest in the famous bungalow, or Government House, which looks off from the rocks of Mombasa out upon the Indian Ocean, on a view unparalleled anywhere in East Africa.

Mr. Currie, manager of the Uganda Railway, and Mr. Sweeney, his assistant, are both good, progressive Englishmen. They told me that all conveniences that could conduce to the health and comfort of the visitors on the railway line of their journey would be put at the command of the popular American hunter. They have actually made improvements in their rolling stock and introduced new ice plants to please and help their distinguished visitor. This Uganda Railway, finished in 1902, runs from Mombasa to Lake Victoria, 584 miles, and along the greater part of it the game is protected on one side of the track. On the right hand side of the track hunters may shoot, and it is here that Mr. Currie and the railway officials will make all arrangements for trains to stop; and cars are to be equipped with everything that can make the hunt at this point an assured pleasure and success. There are hundreds and thousands of wild game in sight of the railway car windows.

The party will likely proceed directly to Nairobi, the capital of British East Africa, 337 miles inland. Here Gov. Sadler and Vice-Gov. Jackson will for a part of the time have Mr. Roosevelt as a guest. But at Nairobi is the famous American, Mr. William N. McMillan, who has a charming wife and whose boundless wealth and genial hospitality are known all over the country. Mr. McMillan I met in August. He was having his town house at Nairobi—a handsome bungalow—fitted up with electric lights, and rooms were being added to it that he may enable the former President to stay at this American home while he is getting ready for his big safari (journey). There are nearly seven hundred Englishmen in and around Nairobi; and they will have receptions and horse races, banquets and speeches. In the Nairobi post office one day I was addressing a picture postal to Mr. Roosevelt, who was then President, and an English pioneer farmer came in and saw it. He said to me: "If you know Mr. Roosevelt, tell him I have a farm ten miles square, with forty wild buffaloes on it. We are keeping them in the hope that your President will give us a look in."

Mr. McMillan is a nephew of Senator McMillan of Michigan. I asked him why he continued to live in Africa. He replied: "I don't know. No man knows what fascinates him with this wild country. I have Africanitis, I suppose. And I hope the President, when he comes, will find it as enjoyable as I always do. I have a farm of 20,000 acres and I can take him to rhino and wild buffalo, as well as lions, within fifty miles of Nairobi, and show him the wildest life he will find in Africa. We are simply rejoicing in the anticipation of the fun and sport and good fellowship we shall have with such a popular and high minded and distinguished man as Roosevelt. We Americans are going to make it evident that we have a big man with us."

If Mr. Roosevelt will take my advice he will not miss the Kilimanjaro Mountain and the Taveta Forest, on the borders of German East Africa and in the Province of Moschi. He can get a train from Nairobi back to Voi, about two hundred miles. From Voi to Burra among the Taita Hills is twenty-three miles. At Burra he will find the English collector, a great and skillful hunter. Then he will cross the Serengeti, a desert of scrub for fifty miles, full of lions, leopards and hyenas. There I had two donkeys eaten by lions and a dog eaten by a leopard. Across the Serengeti there is a good road, built right up through British territory to German East Africa and Marangu, in the Kilimanjaro region. While I was there in August, 1908, eleven elephants were killed by British and German sportsmen in one week.

At Taveta Forest on the border of German and British East Africa, lives the best sportsman in the whole continent of Africa, and Roosevelt cannot afford to miss a hunt with him—my friend, Mr. Hyde Baker, the English Commissioner. He has shot 200 elephants and an equal number of lions, besides a host of game and birds for Baron Rothschild. Tall and straight, and in his prime, Baker is the man nearest Roosevelt's ideal in Africa. Baker is the only white man who ever saw an okapi (the newest animal to science) alive. He shot it in the Ituri forest for Baron Rothschild.

Mr. Baker talked with me about the visit of America's foremost hunter. He said in a simple, boyish way: "Tell the President if he comes my way I will show him all the game." That was not much to say, but when it's all it's a great deal, for this man knows all the game from the Zambesi to the Nile.

In Moschi Roosevelt will find a glorious hunter in Sergeant Major East, of the Moschi Askaris (native troops). Herr East has killed two lions before breakfast. He has shot rhinoceri by the score and lived among wild beasts for twenty years. He is the best authority on the Masai, the famous hunting warriors, in the world.

Continuing his journey to Uganda, the tide of enthusiasm will not abate when the indomitable "Teddy" reaches the Nile country and the Japan of Central Africa. The English Governor of Uganda, Sir Hasketh Bell of Entebbe, on the shores of Lake Victoria, is a redoubtable hunter. A picture in Entebbe shows the Governor surrounded by all kinds of trophies—lion pelts, zebra skins, buffalo horns, elephant tusks. Governor Bell will give the former President of the United States the freedom of Uganda. The Governor's new house at Entebbe will be open to the coming lion hunter.

The King of Uganda, Banda Chwa, a boy of twelve, grandson of that famous Mtesa, who entertained Stanley, told me, while his eyes sparkled with boyish glee, that nowhere could the President find such big bull elephants as in Uganda. He drew me a map of Uganda and marked upon it the famous hunting spots in his big kingdom of 150,000 square miles.

There is a hotel at Jinja at the Ripon Falls, but here is a good Irish Episcopal minister, Archdeacon Buckley, and a good Catholic priest, Bishop Hanlon. These distinguished prelates expect to help make the President's stay among the wild men of Bukedi and the cave men of Mount Elgen an interesting and pleasing one. They are no vain carpet knights, these brave missionaries. They cross savage morasses for 300 miles alone, unaided save by their granite faith. Said Archdeacon Buckley to me at Ripon Falls: "Send Mr. Roosevelt to me and I will take him a hundred miles into the depth of the Bukedi country, where men live in trees and are still cave men. We shall see great elephants and buffaloes who hunt the hunter, and we shall most of all appreciate the visit of a brave, true hearted man."

"Roosevelt is a primal man, and also a man of ripest civilization. He is a rarer specimen of our kind than the okapi of the Congo forests, and where he goes go good hunting, brave thoughts, brave deeds. His collection of specimens and game, his interviews with the colonists and the half savage kings and chiefs will be heard and read of with a universal interest. He will say and write just what he means, and his word to the white men and the black men in the forest will be that of a good man with a fine brain and a great big sympathetic heart. No man since Livingstone, I dare believe, will influence Africa more than Theodore Roosevelt, a notable hunter and a worldwide citizen."—Peter Macquenn, F. R. G. S., in New York Telegram.

SENATE PASSES THE SALARY BILL

Will Draw Two Years' Pay During the Session.

BEFORE HALF OF IT IS DUE

Legislators Will Draw Their Entire Salary Unless the Governor Vetoes the Measure—Opposition to Cass Lake Normal School Makes Passage of That Measure in the House Doubtful—Naturopathic Bill Killed.

St. Paul, March 31.—With only nineteen votes against it, the Brady bill, authorizing the members of the legislature to draw their two years' salary during the legislative session, was passed by the senate. This means that, unless the governor vetoes the bill, the members will draw in a few weeks the $500 they otherwise would have drawn next year.

It was the bill which was killed in committee of the whole three weeks ago. Since that time scarcely a senate bill has been considered by the house and the senators were whipped into line and thirty-seven of them voted for the bill.

The bill was exposed on the floor of the senate three weeks ago, when it was charged that its passage would mean the breaking of faith with the people and a breaking of the contract implied when the members accepted the office. The position pays $500 a year, payable in two installments at the first of each year. T. J. Brady of St. Paul wanted his pay for the second year at the end of the session and the majority of the house members wanted the same. The bill will permit the payment of the total salary by the end of the legislative session, or one year before one-half is due under the law under which the members were elected.

The bill has now passed both branches of the legislature and only the governor's veto stands in the way of its becoming law.

Cass Lake Normal School Bill.

The Cass Lake normal school bill, introduced by Senator Gunn and passed in the senate, was made a special order in the house for next Friday at 2 p. m., when the bill will come up for its final passage or defeat. The so-called general bill, which allowed the normal school board to locate the school, was killed some time ago.

The vote on the bill is expected to be very close. On a motion last week to postpone the bill indefinitely there were 57 yeas and 59 nays. It is believed that some of those who voted against the killing of the bill then will not vote for the bill on its final passage, but on the other hand, some of the absentees may be present and help to pass it.

The members from the northwestern part of the state and those who were on the so-called junket which visited the sites are in the majority opposed to the Cass Lake bill.

The naturopathic examiners' bill which is the name the chiropractic bill has used during this session, saw its finish when it came to a vote in the house. The vote was 83 to 24 against the bill.

The bill passed both houses four years ago and was vetoed by the governor. Two years ago it passed the senate and was killed in the house, and this year the bill was killed in the house.

House Disapproves of Custom.

By voting down the bills to pay O. F. Olson of Douglas county and William Foreman of Wabasha county their expenses in the contests they started to get into the legislature, the house puts its disapproval on the long-continued practice of paying the bills of candidates who start contests when they are defeated by a close vote. The house passed the bill of E. E. Lobeck of Douglas county and James Carley of Wabasha, the two members who were elected and who successfully defended themselves in their contests.

There was wide difference of opinion as to the merits of the semi-monthly salary bill in the senate and it was killed, 24 to 30. The bill had already passed the house and was amended, but the senate thought that once a month was enough for employees to be paid. The bill was aimed at the railroads and was requested by a large number of employees.

The house passed Carl Wallace's bill prohibiting slot machines. There was no debate or opposition to the bill.

The senate passed the bill creating a new banking department. The work of examination of banks is taken from the public examiner, and the governor is to appoint a new official with a deputy for each congressional district. Examination of banks is to be made twice a year. This bill must pass the house.

With one vote to spare the Mork bill, prohibiting young boys in billiard and pool halls, was passed by the senate. The age limit is eighteen, unless the boy is a pupil in school, in which case he cannot legally play pool nor billiards in public until he reaches his majority.

With Ray Farrington of Ortonville, the only voluble champion of the cigarette, the house anti-cigarette bill was recommended for passage by the senate in committee of the whole.

EIGHTEEN BODIES FOUND

And Many More Are Thought to Be in Mexican Mine.

Las Esperanzas, Mex., March 31.—Of fifty-eight miners who were at work when an explosion of gas occurred in one of the shafts of the mine of the Compania Carbinefera del Norte at Menor, in the state of Coahuila, 23 escaped alive, 18 bodies have been recovered and the remainder it is practically certain are dead. The shaft in which the explosion occurred had not been worked for several days, the explosion following quickly after the descent of the first shift. The force of the explosion was felt for a half mile.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential.

Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.

The "Night Cure," as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, causes nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

Prominent Men to Greet Him on His African Trip.

ARAB RULER INTERESTED.

Youthful Sultan of Zanzibar Anxious to Meet Former President—Governor James Sadler Will Also Entertain the Hunting Party From America.

When I arrived in British East Africa last spring I heard a great deal on every side about the visit of our former President, Theodore Roosevelt, to the hunting grounds of big game. Whether it was the Arab Sultan of Zanzibar, the Lewali of Mombasa, the English rulers, the German officers or the French colonists, everybody wanted to show their deep appreciation of Mr. Roosevelt.

A man who will wait with intense interest the guest's arrival will be the hereditary Arab ruler of all East Africa, young Ali bin Hamoud, the present Sultan of Zanzibar. I know the Sultan well. When the American Consul presented me to him in the palace in the summer of 1908 his first words were: "I am always glad to meet Americans. Your big country is the one I most desire to see. Your brilliant President is coming to East Africa, and he will have the warmest welcome ever given to a visitor in my domains. You see, we Arabs have the same sense of honor and high worth that you English-speaking people have. It would be the greatest pleasure in the world for me to receive Mr. Roosevelt and to visit America." So spoke the Sultan of Zanzibar, a young man educated at Eton, now twenty-two years of age, dressed like an English gentleman, and speaking the language of Shakespeare without an accent.

On the main land at Mombasa, the Arab ruler is called the Lewali. He is a descendant of a race of kings. He will be on the reception committee at Mombasa. For a long time his Arab ancestors fought the Arabs of Zanzibar, but at last Zanzibar was victorious, and the Lewali of Mombasa is now a finely educated young man, is a subject of the Sultan and under the Protectorate of England. Great Britain rents the shore land for ten miles inland from the Sultan of Zanzibar for $85,000 a year. The hinterland is hers by right of occupation, and a territory of 400,000 square miles, containing 5,000 blacks and 3,000 whites, makes up what is called the East African Protectorate. It is here and in Uganda, another territory at the head waters of the Nile, that the most of the hunting is to be done. The two side trips of most importance are the one projected into the Congo in search of white rhinoceri, and the one toward Lake Rudolph on the Abyssinian border. There is also a fine trip to the Kilimanjaro and German East Africa in contemplation.

Now, one of the men who will be prominent in the entertainment of the Roosevelt party is Gov. Sir James Sadler of the East African Protectorate, who has a fine bungalow at Mombasa and one at Nairobi, 337 miles in the interior, at an elevation of 5,500 feet. Sir James is a man of open heart and kindly disposition. He has been undeviatingly in favor of giving the blacks their own land and all their rights. Some of the colonists think that Gov. Sadler is kind to the natives and the Hindus at the expense of the white men. He expelled the Hon. Mr. Bailey and Lord Delamere from the legislative assembly at Nairobi last year because those gentlemen were actively working against the game preserves and the reserves of land for the Masai and other tribes.

Mr. Bailey and Lord Delamere are both rich men and very popular, and they will unquestionably be among the British colonists to welcome and greet the big man after big game. I understand that Gov. Sadler is going to have Mr. Roosevelt as his guest in the famous bungalow, or Government House, which looks off from the rocks of Mombasa out upon the Indian Ocean, on a view unparalleled anywhere in East Africa.

Mr. Currie, manager of the Uganda Railway, and Mr. Sweeney, his assistant, are both good, progressive Englishmen. They told me that all conveniences that could conduce to the health and comfort of the visitors on the railway line of their journey would be put at the command of the popular American hunter. They have actually made improvements in their rolling stock and introduced new ice plants to please and help their distinguished visitor. This Uganda Railway, finished in 1902, runs from Mombasa to Lake Victoria, 584 miles, and along the greater part of it the game is protected on one side of the track. On the right hand side of the track hunters may shoot, and it is here that Mr. Currie and the railway officials will make all arrangements for trains to stop; and cars are to be equipped with everything that can make the hunt at this point an assured pleasure and success. There are hundreds and thousands of wild game in sight of the railway car windows.

The party will likely proceed directly to Nairobi, the capital of British East Africa, 337 miles inland. Here Gov. Sadler and Vice-Gov. Jackson will for a part of the time have Mr. Roosevelt as a guest. But at Nairobi is the famous American, Mr. William N. McMillan, who has a charming wife and whose boundless wealth and genial hospitality are known all over the country. Mr. McMillan I met in August. He was having his town house at Nairobi—a handsome bungalow—fitted up with electric lights, and rooms were being added to it that he may enable the former President to stay at this American home while he is getting ready for his big safari (journey). There are nearly seven hundred Englishmen in and around Nairobi; and they will have receptions and horse races, banquets and speeches. In the Nairobi post office one day I was addressing a picture postal to Mr. Roosevelt, who was then President, and an English pioneer farmer came in and saw it. He said to me: "If you know Mr. Roosevelt, tell him I have a farm ten miles square, with forty wild buffaloes on it. We are keeping them in the hope that your President will give us a look in."

Mr. McMillan is a nephew of Senator McMillan of Michigan. I asked him why he continued to live in Africa. He replied: "I don't know. No man knows what fascinates him with this wild country. I have Africanitis, I suppose. And I hope the President, when he comes, will find it as enjoyable as I always do. I have a farm of 20,000 acres and I can take him to rhino and wild buffalo, as well as lions, within fifty miles of Nairobi, and show him the wildest life he will find in Africa. We are simply rejoicing in the anticipation of the fun and sport and good fellowship we shall have with such a popular and high minded and distinguished man as Roosevelt. We Americans are going to make it evident that we have a big man with us."

If Mr. Roosevelt will take my advice he will not miss the Kilimanjaro Mountain and the Taveta Forest, on the borders of German East Africa and in the Province of Moschi. He can get a train from Nairobi back to Voi, about two hundred miles. From Voi to Burra among the Taita Hills is twenty-three miles. At Burra he will find the English collector, a great and skillful hunter. Then he will cross the Serengeti, a desert of scrub for fifty miles, full of lions, leopards and hyenas. There I had two donkeys eaten by lions and a dog eaten by a leopard. Across the Serengeti there is a good road, built right up through British territory to German East Africa and Marungu, in the Kilimanjaro region. While I was there in August, 1908, eleven elephants were killed by British and German sportsmen in one week.

At Taveta Forest on the border of German and British East Africa, lives the best sportsman in the whole continent of Africa, and Roosevelt cannot afford to miss a hunt with him—my friend, Mr. Hyde Baker, the English Commissioner. He has shot 200 elephants and an equal number of lions, besides a host of game and birds for Baron Rothschild. Tall and straight, and in his prime, Baker is the man nearest Roosevelt's ideal in Africa. Baker is the only white man who ever saw an okapi (the newest animal to science) alive. He shot it in the Ituri forest for Baron Rothschild.

Mr. Baker talked with me about the visit of America's foremost hunter. He said in a simple, boyish way: "Tell the President if he comes my way I will show him all the game." That was not much to say, but when it's all it's a great deal, for this man knows all the game from the Zambesi to the Nile.

In Moschi Roosevelt will find a glorious hunter in Sergeant Major Bast, of the Moschi Askaris (native troops). Herr Bast has killed two lions before breakfast. He has shot rhinoceri by the score and lived among wild beasts for twenty years. He is the best authority on the Masai, the famous hunting warriors, in the world.

Continuing his journey to Uganda, the tide of enthusiasm will not abate when the indomitable "Teddy" reaches the Nile country and the Japan of Central Africa. The English Governor of Uganda, Sir Hasketh Bell of Entebbe, on the shores of Lake Victoria, is a redoubtable hunter. A picture in Entebbe shows the Governor surrounded by all kinds of trophies—lion pelts, zebra skins, buffalo horns, elephant tusks. Governor Bell will give the former President of the United States the freedom of Uganda. The Governor's new house at Entebbe will be open to the coming lion hunter.

The King of Uganda, Banda Chwa, a boy of twelve, grandson of that famous Mtesa, who entertained Stanley, told me, while his eyes sparkled with boyish glee, that nowhere could the President find such big bull elephants as in Uganda. He drew me a map of Uganda and marked upon it the famous hunting spots in his big kingdom of 150,000 square miles.

There is a hotel at Jinja at the Ripon Falls, but here is a good Irish Episcopal minister, Archdeacon Buckley, and a good Catholic priest, Bishop Hanlon. These distinguished prelates expect to help make the President's stay among the wild men of Bukedi and the cave men of Mount Elgen an interesting and pleasing one. They are no vain carpet knights, these brave missionaries. They cross savage morasses for 300 miles alone, unaided save by their granite faith. Said Archdeacon Buckley to me at Ripon Falls: "Send Mr. Roosevelt to me and I will take him a hundred miles into the depth of the Bukedi country, where men live in trees and are still cave men. We shall see great elephants and buffaloes who hunt the hunter, and we shall most of all appreciate the visit of a brave, true hearted man."

"Roosevelt is a primal man, and also a man of ripest civilization. He is a rarer specimen of our kind than the okapi of the Congo forests, and where he goes good hunting, brave thoughts, brave deeds. His collection of specimens and game, his interviews with the colonists and the half savage kings and chiefs will be heard and read of with a universal interest. He will say and write just what he means, and his word to the white men and the black men in the forest will be that of a good man with a fine brain and a great big sympathetic heart. No man since Livingston, I dare believe, will influence Africa more than Theodore Roosevelt, a notable hunter and a world wide citizen."—Peter Macqueen, F. R. G. S., in New York Telegram.

SENATE PASSES THE SALARY BILL

Will Draw Two Years' Pay During the Session.

BEFORE HALF OF IT IS DUE

Legislators Will Draw Their Entire Salary Unless the Governor Vetoes the Measure—Opposition to Cass Lake Normal School Makes Passage of That Measure in the House Doubtful—Naturopathic Bill Killed.

St. Paul, March 31.—With only nineteen votes against it, the Brady bill, authorizing the members of the legislature to draw their two years' salary during the legislative session, was passed by the senate. This means that, unless the governor vetoes the bill, the members will draw in a few weeks the $500 they otherwise would have drawn next year.

It was the bill which was killed in committee of the whole three weeks ago. Since that time scarcely a senate bill has been considered by the house and the senators were whipped into line and thirty-seven of them voted for the bill.

The bill was exposed on the floor of the senate three weeks ago, when it was charged that its passage would mean the breaking of faith with the people and a breaking of the contract implied when the members accepted the office. The position pays $500 a year, payable in two installments at the first of each year. T. J. Brady of St. Paul wanted his pay for the second year at the end of the session and the majority of the house members wanted the same. The bill will permit the payment of the total salary by the end of the legislative session, or one year before one-half is due under the law under which the members were elected.

The bill has now passed both branches of the legislature and only the governor's veto stands in the way of its becoming law.

Cass Lake Normal School Bill.

The Cass Lake normal school bill, introduced by Senator Gunn and passed in the senate, was made a special order in the house for next Friday at 2 p. m., when the bill will come up for its final passage or defeat. The so-called general bill, which allowed the normal school board to locate the school, was killed some time ago.

The vote on the bill is expected to be very close. On a motion last week to postpone the bill indefinitely there were 57 yeas and 59 nays. It is believed that some of those who voted against the killing of the bill then will not vote for the bill on its final passage, but on the other hand, some of the absentees may be present and help to pass it.

The members from the northwestern part of the state and those who were on the so-called junket which visited the sites are in the majority opposed to the Cass Lake bill.

The naturopathic examiners' bill which is the name the chiropractic bill has used during this session, saw its finish when it came to a vote in the house. The vote was 83 to 24 against the bill.

The bill passed both houses four years ago and was vetoed by the governor. Two years ago it passed the senate and was killed in the house, and this year the bill was killed in the house.

House Disapproves of Custom.

By voting down the bills to pay O. F. Olson of Douglas county and William Foreman of Wabasha county their expenses in the contests they started to get into the legislature, the house put its disapproval on the long-continued practice of paying the bills of candidates who start contests when they are defeated by a close vote. The house passed the bill of E. E. Lobeck of Douglas county and James Carley of Wabasha, the two members who were elected and who successfully defended themselves in their contests.

There was wide difference of opinion as to the merits of the semi-monthly salary bill in the senate and it was killed, 24 to 30. The bill had already passed the house and was amended, but the senate thought that once a month was enough for employees to be paid. The bill was aimed at the railroads and was requested by a large number of employees.

The house passed Carl Wallace's bill prohibiting slot machines. There was no debate or opposition to the bill.

The senate passed the bill creating a new banking department. The work of examination of banks is taken from the public examiner, and the governor is to appoint a new official with a deputy for each congressional district. Examination of banks is to be made twice a year. This bill must pass the house.

With one vote to spare the Mork bill, prohibiting young boys in billiard and pool halls, was passed by the senate. The age limit is eighteen, unless the boy is a pupil in school, in which case he cannot legally play pool nor billiards in public until he reaches his majority.

With Ray Farrington of Ortonville, the only voluble champion of the cigarette, the house anti-cigarette bill was recommended for passage by the senate in committee of the whole.

EIGHTEEN BODIES FOUND

And Many More Are Thought to Be in Mexican Mine.

Las Esperansas, Mex., March 31.—Of fifty-eight miners who were at work when an explosion of gas occurred in one of the shafts of the mine of the Compania Carbinefera del Norte at Menor, in the state of Coahuila, 23 escaped alive, 18 bodies have been recovered and the remainder it is practically certain are dead. The shaft in which the explosion occurred had not been worked for several days, the explosion following quickly after the descent of the first shift. The force of the explosion was felt for a half mile.

Simple Remedy for La Grippe.

La grippe coughs are dangerous as they frequently develop into pneumonia. Foley's Honey and Tar not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs so that no serious results need be feared. Wolgast Defeats Picato.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 31.—Ad Wolgast of Milwaukee had a slight lead over Frank Picato of Los Angeles in their ten-round contest before the Pacific Athletic club. The fight was a tame affair.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments. The "Night Cure," as its name implies, does the work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, breaks local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, cases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well
